EXTENSILK: LAVORAZIONE ITALIANA

The raw material used, the accuracy of the services and the unique experience of a hairdresser as GERRY SANTORO, make the extensions EXTENSILK an excellent product.

EXTENSILK has its headquarters in Tuscany and was born in the cradle of Florentine art. All processing steps are carried out in Italy, with exclusive industrial processes, edited by true masters in transforming the hair into silk. The unique processing method EXTENSILK transforms the hair in proposals for unparalleled quality, made exclusively with natural hair :

- strands of equal length slightly scaled on the points
- curly locks,
- strands of fancy color, streaked and mix color,
- smooth textures and curly textures,
- hair loose.
