NATURAL BEAUTY

for professional use only when nature meets science

For millennia the Chinese use herbs to cure but only in recent decades in the West is also practicing homeopathic treatments both aesthetic and pharmacological. With the individual herbs and associated with other, you get myriad mix of herbal extracts to treat many annoyances and/or anomalies and imperfections, both physical and is purely aesthetic. Until a few years ago typically cosmetics were formulated for most chemical ingredients. Today, Charm & Elegance together with the Lab is a laboratory of Revery formulation and production for over 35 years produces cosmetics with at least 95% of the ingredients and totally natural raw materials, have put together a product line called "natural". Charm & Elegance, of course ... cosmetics.
